

STEFAN ROUENHOFF

Born in December 1978 in
Goch, Kleve county

PROFESSIONAL CAREER

Since 10/2017	Member of the German Bundestag
08/2014 – 07/2017	Permanent Representation of the Federal Republic of Germany to the European Union Trade policy advisor (trade attaché)
01/2012 – 07/2014	Federal Ministry for Economic Affairs and Energy Ministry spokesman
06/2010 – 01/2012	Federal Ministry for Economic Affairs and Technology Policy advisor for small and medium-sized business policy
02/2010 – 05/2010	World Trade Organization WTO Economic Research and Statistics Division Research period
02/2008 – 04/2010	University of Bamberg Faculty of Economics, focus on global economy Research associate

HIGHER EDUCATION

02/2008	Master in Economics
10/2001 – 09/2007	University of Bonn Master programme Economics
12/2006	Master in International Studies
09/2004 – 08/2005	University of Birmingham, United Kingdom Master programme International Studies
10/2000 – 08/2004	University of Bonn Studies of Political Science with minors in Macroeconomics and Public Law

UNIVERSITY SCHOLARSHIPS

02/2010 – 03/2010	German Academic Exchange Service (DAAD) Student scholarship
2002 – 2006	Konrad-Adenauer-Stiftung Student scholarship

SCHOOL EDUCATION / VOCATIONAL TRAINING

06/2000	Professional qualification as draughtsman
1998 – 2000	Draughtsman, vocational training Field: civil engineering
06/1998	Abitur (higher-education entrance qualification)
1989 – 1998	Städtisches Gymnasium Goch

VOLUNTARY POLITICAL WORK

Since 05/2016	Chairman of the Christian Democratic Union (CDU) Goch
2004 – 2006	Member of the executive committee of the Junge Union North Rhine-Westphalia
2002 – 2006	Deputy chairman of Junge Union Niederrhein
2000 – 2002	Deputy chairman of the Junge Union Kreis Kleve
1999 – 2004	CDU member of the Goch town council
1998 – 2000	Chairman of the Junge Union Goch
Since 1996	Member of CDU Germany